GWYNNE DYER Speaking at Festival Hall
March 24, 2014 – 7 p.m. – Tickets $15

2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the beginning of World War 1. Gwynne Dyer will speak on: “What the First World War Taught Us”.

Freelance journalist, columnist, broadcaster and lecturer on international affairs for more than 25 years. Author of numerous books on geopolitical subjects and producer of award-winning television series and radio documentaries.

Gwynne Dyer is a popular and exceptional lecturer, always interesting and provocative, and very well-informed about current and historical international affairs—he is a speaker not to be missed!

Call Festival Hall at 613-735-2182 for your tickets.

ED LAWRENCE Speaking at Festival Hall
April 10, 2014 – 7 p.m. – Tickets $15

Master Gardener, Ed Lawrence, comes to Pembroke as the last guest of our Algonquin Speakers Series.

Mr. Lawrence has retired as head gardener to six Canadian Governors General and Prime Ministers and, for more than two decades, has been the phone-in “gardening guru” for CBC Radio’s “Ontario Today”. During each episode, he shares his encyclopedic knowledge of the gardening world, providing practical, down-to-earth advice for more than half a million loyal listeners and fans.

Now, he’ll be bringing some of his most interesting gardening secrets, stories, pest repellent recipes, and photographs to Renfrew County audiences just in time for the 2014 gardening season.

Call Festival Hall at 613-735-2182 for your tickets.